SUBJECT: Child Support Enforcement Against Military Personnel

ATTACHMENTS: Child Support Enforcement Against Military Personnel -
September 1989 - (Not Available On-Line)

Frequently requests are made to the New York State Office of Child Support Enforcement regarding what steps may be taken to locate, establish paternity and/or establish and enforce child support obligations against military personnel. Attached please find information gathered by personnel of the Judge Advocate General's School, U. S. Army, which provides both substantive and practical approaches to securing support from military personnel. Also included are recently modified Department of Defense regulations [page 25] which, although designed to address cases of parental kidnapping, may be applicable to child support enforcement.

Please share this information with your Child Support Enforcement Unit staff.
